InformationLeader makes an immediate impact on the U.S. food industry

InformationLeader will be installed at two leading food manufacturing and processing facilities in the U.S.A over the next couple of months.

Dr. Karl Kolb, President of the High Sierra Group said that "InformationLeader has the potential to revolutionise the North American food industry, heralding a new era of food safety and quality control."

The High Sierra Group is the most effective, diverse, productive and largest full service organization serving the International Food Industry. The group's audits, inspections and programs are approved by food industry institutions throughout the United States and around the world.
